About JIM

St Joseph's Institute of Management (JIM) is a Jesuit Business School with a motto of Forming Responsible Leaders. Started in 2007, approved by All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and affiliated to Bharathidasan University, JIM is a part of 178-year-old St Joseph's College (Autonomous) that is recognised for its heritage and service to the nation. Former President of India, APJ Abdul Kalam is an alumnus of this college. Standing tall on the brand of St Joseph's, JIM strives to produce globally competent MBA graduates who lead their lives based on values: Integrity, Excellence (magis), Service and Responsibility. Learning, training and development are the triadic axis around which JIM operates. Therefore, students of JIM do not study for exams but they study for life, life that is meaningful and other-centred.
