

A one-day management development program was organised by JIM on 18th September 2021 for the I year BSc. Nursing students from Jenny's School of Nursing, Trichy. 48 students participated in this training program which included sessions designed to nurture the potentials of the nursing staff to strengthen their career and also help them build a cohesive working environment in the hospitals.

